

“Simple Gifts” Children’s Folk Sing

A LEE LIBRARY SUMMER READING PROGRAM EVENT

presenting

The Rev. John McKinstry

Saturday, July 17th, 11:30am-12:30

At the Lee Library, in the J. Peter Scolforo Gallery, 100 Main Street, Lee

The Lee Library Association is pleased to welcome you to this SRP event. The SRP theme this year is go green at your library. This program will feature children’s folk songs about living a simpler greener life. It is intended for children of all ages and adults. Audience participation is highly encouraged.

The Rev. John McKinstry is a retired Congregational (United Church of Christ) pastor who now lives in Lee with his wife Anne. He has been interested in American Folk Songs since first hearing Burl Ives recordings in the 1950s.

This Lee Library Association Event is Free and Open to the Public.
